IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS (TERMS AND CONDITIONS)

- All accepted students will be invited to join an online course in German language from March to Mai 2026. It is planned to offer 10 lessons of 10 – 20 minutes, which will be completed with a test, which must be passed before the beginning of the course. This additional offer is integrated without additional costs, as we had to realize that poor German knowledge has been repeated the origin of arising problems.
- The cost for the participants is CHF 3'750. It is payable in three instalments to CHF 1'250 from the salary you will earn during internship. The school fee will be deducted from the salary and sent to SHA directly by the employer. The guaranteed monthly gross salary in internship (incl. 13th salary) is CHF 3'700. In the tables on the tender document the approximate deductions are shown.
- The effective cost can vary due to local circumstances (different accommodation, number of meals in the company, etc.). SHA tries its best to not raise the total cost for the students.
- In case of discontinuation of the program, the participant is personally liable for the payment of the course fees. If the student withdraws after definitive admission, does not show up or terminates earlier, he owes SHA in addition to the school fees (if the course has been joined) an administrative penalty of CHF 500.
- All participants are insured in Switzerland by SHA and the employer against illness and accident according to Swiss legal regulations without any deductible at respective insurers. Attention: in Swiss health insurances no dental treatments are covered!
- We recommend making a liability insurance, to cover eventual damages a student causes.
- During the internship, students are under Swiss labour law and ~~AVG~~ for gastronomy. Beside the contractual guaranteed salary, they also get holidays and public holidays. During internship a five-day week with up to 45 hours a week (depending on the employer) is standard. The employer has the right to require overtime and additional working days. These must be compensated and if this is not possible, paid at the end.
- We herewith underline that the students get a full employee salary. Thus, a respective work motivation, willingness to learn and professional performance is required.
- A suitable internship company is sought by SHA based on the input of the applicants and available jobs. It is not possible to offer a right to say to the students. The address of the employer will be communicated as soon as all formalities are done. Typically, this is short before the start of the program. An internship company that does not fit on the first view is no reason to cancel the application.
- In rare cases, it may happen that a suitable company has not yet been found at the start of the training course. In these cases, SHA offers the option of withdrawing the application (without additional costs) or completing the course. Should, contrary to expectations, no employer be found during the course, SHA will not charge any fees in this case (this has never happened so far).
- SHA keeps the right, in case of insufficient skills and knowledge or deficient behaviour, to send students back at any time of the program. In such a case all services used (course) must be paid immediately.

- ☐ With the signature of this registration the students agree that SHA processes electronically all data necessary for the program administration. SHA takes all up-to-date measures to protect data and personality of the students and commits not to forward the data elsewhere.
- ☐ Based on legal regulations the program can be cancelled, stopped or students can be put on furlough also with short time notice (e.g. limitations due to a pandemic). As SHA has no influence on such decisions, it cannot be held responsible. We try our best to support the students in such a case to find best possible solutions. If students cannot participate at the program due to legal regulations, we do not ask for a penalty.
- ☐ This is a not authorised English translation. In case of any dispute the German version of this registration form is binding.
- ☐ Further claims for damages or other reasons are expressly excluded.
